JURIST OF THE YEAR

Beginning in November 2009, and then annually, the Foster Care Review Board (FCRB) will recognize one jurist (referee or judge) from the State of Michigan for exemplary judicial service to abused/neglected children. Nominations may be submitted by agencies, court personnel, CASAs, foster parents, FCRB staff and review board members, or any interested person familiar with the nominee. The FCRB will accept nomination forms from June 1 through September 18, 2009. They may be submitted by email (preferred), fax, or postal service to the addresses shown at the bottom of this page. Blank nomination forms are available on the Foster Care Review Board program page of the Michigan Courts web site at <http://courts.michigan.gov/scao/services/fcrb/fcrb.htm>.

Persons interested in nominating a jurist (referee or judge) for this award should consider the following attributes and criteria:

- Nominee’s performance on behalf of children and their families in the child welfare system.
- The highest standards of practice and commitment to judicial ethics.
- Leadership in moving children to safe and timely permanency by ensuring timeliness and thoroughness of required hearings.
- Promoting a courtroom environment of respect, safety, sensitivity, and inclusion.
- Leadership in ensuring children’s safety and well being by actively monitoring the care and supervision provided by the assigned child welfare agency.
- Leadership in holding caseworkers and attorneys to practice and policy standards established to facilitate safe and timely permanency for children under the court’s jurisdiction.
- When making decisions regarding the child’s best interests, the nominee values, requires, and utilizes information provided by the parties assigned to care for the children (L-GALs, foster care workers, therapists, foster parents, CASAs, etc.).
- Extensive knowledge about the array and effectiveness of services available in the community to serve the needs of children and families.
- Demonstrated leadership in establishing collaborative relationships within the community to improve the array and effectiveness of needed services.
- Strong leadership on initiatives designed to instill public trust and confidence in the Michigan courts.
- At least five years of experience as a jurist assigned to child welfare cases.

You are encouraged to nominate any jurist who meets the above criteria. The recipient of this award will be selected by a committee comprised of FCRB board members, advisory committee professionals and advocates, child welfare professionals, and FCRB program staff. The award recipient will be recognized at the FCRB annual training conference in early November.
