36th District Court marks juror's month

The 36th District Court is celebrating Juror Appreciation Month during the month of July to recognize city of Detroit residents who have completed jury duty and to highlight the honor and importance of serving on a jury.

Throughout the month activities will include airing of the court's jury service video, "Jurors in Paradise," and the recently released production, "36th District Court: Justice for All" as well as a variety of documentaries and musical performances provided by The Detroit Public Library.

In addition to light morning refreshments, jurors will receive a copy of the resolution issued by the Michigan Supreme Court, bookmarks imprinted with a juror appreciation message and Certificates of Appreciation. They will also receive visitdetroit bags filled with visitdetroit magazines, maps and DET bumper stickers, provided by the Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau. Station to Station Guides that highlight great destinations in downtown Detroit along the Detroit People Mover route are also being provided to jurors by The Detroit People Mover, a Detroit Transportation Corporation.

New to this year's observance is the Tour Ren Cen guide, inviting jurors to join in for a complimentary walking tour of the landmark GM Renaissance Center.

According to Chief Judge Marilyn E. Atkins, the objective of Juror Appreciation Month is to show past and prospective jurors that their contributions are greatly appreciated by the Court. A member of the bench greets the jurors daily and thanks them for serving.

"Jury service is a vital aspect of our government," said Judge Atkins. "When you serve as juror, you not only serve your country, but you serve as an integral part of the justice system.

"We want every juror to feel appreciated and to know how much we value their time and commitment to our system of justice," Atkins continued. "We would also like to thank the many private companies, government agencies, small businesses, school districts, and all those who encourage and support their employees when they are called to jury service.

"We depend on your service -- thank you for doing your duty!"
