

Table of Misdemeanor Offenses for Which Costs are Authorized

The following table sets out the list of misdemeanor¹ offenses for which the court is authorized or required to order costs. See People v Cunningham (Cunningham II), 496 Mich 145, 147, 158 n 11 (2014), holding that courts have authority to impose costs in criminal cases only where such costs are specifically authorized by statute, and that neither MCL 769.1k\(1\)\(b\)\(ii\) nor MCL 769.34\(6\) provides a sentencing court with the independent authority to impose any cost; see also MCL 769.1k\(1\)\(b\)\(iii\), added by 2014 PA 352, effective October 17, 2014, as “a curative measure” in response to Cunningham II to specifically permit the collection of court costs.² The bold words that appear in each quotation are added so that the costs-related language can be easily identified; they should not be construed as adding emphasis. The “any cost” provision in MCL 769.1k\(1\)\(b\)\(iii\) is applicable until December 31, 2026.

Disclaimer: This table attempts to set out every misdemeanor offense for which costs are specifically authorized or required. However, the reader is strongly encouraged to check the primary authority before deciding whether to impose costs.

For statutory authority for the imposition of other costs that are generally applicable to broad categories of offenses, see the Table of General Costs.

¹ See the Table of Felony Costs for a list of felony offenses for which costs are authorized.

² See 2014 PA 352, enacting section 2. See also People v Konopka, 309 Mich App 345, 357 (2015) (holding that court costs may be awarded under MCL 769.1k\(1\)\(b\)\(iii\), as amended by 2014 PA 352, effective October 17, 2014).
