This case is no longer eligible for child support services under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. The friend of the court has inactivated this case under MCR 3.208.

The following friend of the court services are not available until the case is once again eligible for Title IV-D services:

1. Child support collection and disbursement;
2. Child support enforcement; and
3. Child support review and adjustment.

Custody and parenting time enforcement services are available, but the requesting party may be required to apply for Title IV-D services as a precondition.
