Trial Courts Serve the Public
We Serve the Trial Courts

August 2019

Our mission: Provide assistance to circuit court family divisions on child welfare matters, including child protective proceedings, foster care, adoption, coordination with Indian tribes, termination of parental rights, permanency outcomes, and data collection and analysis.

How we can help:
- Technical assistance.
- Data measures and performance reports using court and DHS data.
- Training for judicial officers, attorneys, court clerks, DHS, and other child welfare stakeholders.
- Federal Title IV-E compliance.

A few examples of our work:
- Practice guides and resources, e.g. judicial bench cards for each child protection hearing.
- CWS online toolkit and webcasts.
- Best practices for child protective proceedings.
- Adoption & Permanency Forums, cosponsored by DHS Director Maura Corrigan and Justice Mary Beth Kelly. Bring together court-led multi-disciplinary teams from each county to problem solve on the barriers to achieving timely permanency for children in foster care.
- Genesee County Parent Representation Pilot Project. Tests a model of representation by providing a social worker for the parent’s legal team to determine whether enhanced legal representation results in more timely reunification for parents and children. The social worker works at the direction of the legal team to engage parents in the child welfare process and court proceedings.
- Michigan Coalition for Race Equity in Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice. The Coalition is reviewing the various studies on minority overrepresentation in Michigan’s child welfare and juvenile justice system, identifying the currently available data and any barriers to collecting data, assessing underlying causes of any identified disproportionality, and prioritizing recommended reforms.
- Permanency Options Workgroup. This cross-disciplinary group formed by former Justice Maura Corrigan examines state child welfare laws and policies and produces 3-5 legislative recommendations per year.

Judicial Information Services

Our mission: To deliver IT expertise and services to the Michigan Judiciary.

How we can help:
- Information technology and telecommunications consulting, implementation, and support services.
- Case management systems development, implementation, training, and support.
- Data, information management, and analytical services.

A few examples of our work:
- Trial Court Case Management Systems. The JIS MiCOURT Suite of case management systems supports more than 250 court locations. These systems enable the processing of circuit, district, juvenile, and probate cases.
- Judicial Network. Infrastructure and software improvements to improve electronic disposition reporting by trial courts to the Michigan State Police and Secretary of State.
- Judicial Data Warehouse. Collection of approximately 47 million trial court case records made available to the judiciary, several state departments, and law enforcement.
- Michigan Court Application Portal (MCAP). The software application used by trial courts to submit reports required by the State Court Administrative Office, such as caseload and outstanding receivables data.
- Online Ticket Payment System. Payment of tickets via the Michigan.gov website.
- One Court of Justice. Website for trial courts, legal community, media, and the general public.
- Video Conferencing. Provide all judges, Internet-connected high-definition (HD) video systems in their courtrooms. These systems save time and the expense of travel associated with trial court hearings, as well as reducing the safety and security risks associated with inmate travel.
- Case management in the Cloud. Provide cloud-based case management system hosting services to Michigan’s trial courts, enabling courts to reduce spending time and money managing their own computer services locally.
- Information technology desktop, network, applications, and telecommunications services and support for Michigan Supreme Court and State Court Administrative Office staff.

Office of Dispute Resolution

Our mission: Provide citizens with an alternative to the traditional adversarial process. Work with courts to design, implement, and evaluate alternative dispute resolution (ADR) systems. Work with courts, Community Dispute Resolution Program (CDRP) centers, and private mediators to improve access to mediation and other ADR processes.

How we can help:
- Design and evaluate ADR systems.
- Assess how CDRP centers can help provide services.
- Provide public education materials.

A few examples of our work:
- Issued two recent reports on the effect of ordering cases evaluated under $25,000 to CDRP centers, and the relationship between case evaluation and mediation in circuit court cases.
- Provide free training for volunteer mediators managing divorce, guardianship, and child protection cases.
- Provide guidance and “best practices” in developing court ADR plans.

Our mission: Work with media to advance the public’s understanding of the justice system. Represent the Michigan judicial branch with the media and public. Counsel courts on media and public relations issues.

How we can help:
- Media and public relations consulting.
- Crisis communications.
- Public outreach planning.
- Positive media coverage opportunities.

A few examples of our work:
- Michigan’s annual Adoption Day, educating the public about adoption and providing a positive media opportunity for the courts.
- Michigan judge was to be featured in national publication as “worst judge in America”; worked quickly to expose flaws in “study” that would have been basis for article; publication abandoned project.
- “Court Community Connections” program that offers positive public outreach opportunities for trial courts to work with Supreme Court.

SeaksL@courts.mi.gov / 517-373-0714
Our mission: At the direction of the Michigan Supreme Court, the regional offices provide support to the trial courts to improve the judicial system and meet the changing needs of the judiciary. This support includes system performance analysis, accurate and timely information, high-quality customer service, legal and ethical authority, and identification of key court performance measures.

How we can help:
- Technical assistance (phone, e-mail, in person).
- Management assistance.
- Training.
- Monitoring of performance and ensuring compliance.
- Liaison.
- Assignments.
- Mediation within the court, as well as with other units of government such as the funding unit, Department of Corrections, and Secretary of State.
- Investigations.
- Advice on:
  - Potential disqualifications.
  - Interpreting the Code of Judicial Conduct.
  - Intercourt and intergovernmental relationships.
  - Chief judge rule.
  - Selection/discipline of employees.
  - Attorney Grievance Commission.
  - Judicial performance and behavior.
  - Americans with Disabilities Act.
A few examples of our work:

- Work with the courts to improve court performance, especially in the area of timeliness of case processing.
- Assist courts with implementing concurrent jurisdiction plans, allowing the courts, judges, and court staff to work together in a more efficient and effective way.
- Recommend chief judge appointments; work with courts in a single jurisdiction to transition from multiple chief judges to one chief judge.
- Work with state and tribal court judges to bring about more cooperation and coordination of cases involving possible jurisdiction in both courts.
- Work with the courts on human resources issues.
- Work with the courts on transition to e-Filing.

Our mission: Develop and implement security and emergency management programs and policies that enable the state court system to detect, prepare for, prevent, protect against, respond to, and recover from all natural and human-caused threats, emergencies, and disasters.

How we can help:
- Provide guidance and assistance for court security enhancements.
- Review building plans and policies from a security perspective.
- Conduct safety and security audits at court facilities.
- Conduct safety and security training for court employees.
- Act as liaison with local law enforcement in threat mitigation.

A few examples of our work:
- Secure, nonpublic website available through the Michigan Court Application Portal (MCAP) at which trial courts can obtain best practices, resources, and guidance related to court security and emergency management planning, preparedness, and response.
- E-mail Listserv to facilitate information sharing among staff assigned court security and emergency management responsibilities.
- Safety and security training for approximately 200 Berrien Trial Court and County employees, followed by a security audit of three facilities. The resulting recommendations, including activating a Security Committee, were prioritized and the court has begun instituting them.
