FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Michigan Supreme Court announces appointments to Attorney Discipline Board

LANSING, MI, September 18, 2013 – The Michigan Supreme Court has announced the following appointments to the Attorney Discipline Board:

Michael Murray of Alaiedon Township, attorney and legal counsel/chief of staff for the Catholic Diocese of Lansing, is appointed for a term ending October 1, 2016. Murray is a former chief commissioner of the Michigan Supreme Court and former chair of the Attorney Grievance Commission.

Rosalind E. Griffin, M.D. of Farmington Hills, psychiatrist practicing in the field of adult and adolescent psychotherapy with special qualifications in forensic psychiatry, is reappointed for a term ending October 1, 2016.

James M. Cameron, Jr. of Ann Arbor, attorney and member in the law firm of Dykema Gossett PLLC, is appointed chairperson for a term ending October 1, 2014.

Craig H. Lubben of Kalamazoo, attorney and member in the law firm of Miller Johnson, is appointed vice-chairperson for a term ending October 1, 2014.

The Attorney Discipline Board consists of six attorneys and three non-attorneys appointed by the Supreme Court; appointees serve on a volunteer basis.

The Attorney Discipline Board is the adjudicative arm of the attorney discipline system in Michigan; the ADB oversees panels that hear attorney misconduct cases and also imposes sanctions, subject to appeal to the Michigan Supreme Court.
