Chief Justice Bridget M. McCormack
Statement on the Death of Former Justice Charles Levin
Thursday, November 19, 2020

“The name ‘Levin’ is deeply embedded in Michigan’s history; the family is known for dedicated service to the people. Justice Charles Levin certainly lived up to the name in his 30 years of service on the Court of Appeals and Supreme Court. Justice Levin’s legacy is marked by great scholarship, independence, compassion, and courage. He started his own party in order to run for the Supreme Court – a courageous act of independence that is a model for us all. My colleagues mourn his passing and offer sincerest condolences to the Levin family.”
