Michigan Supreme Court Welcomes Jeff Mills as new Court Crier

LANSING, MI, February 28, 2018 – The Michigan Supreme Court has welcomed Jeff Mills as the Court’s new crier. Mills is a veteran of both the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, having worked as the records clerk/manager for the Court of Appeals from 1981 to 1998, and as the data administrator in the Supreme Court since 1998.

“We are pleased to announce Jeff Mills has accepted the position of Court Crier,” said Chief Justice Stephen Markman. “Jeff’s experience, dedication to quality, and knowledge of the Court will be an invaluable asset to the justices and to all the staff at the Hall of Justice.”

Mills and his wife live in the Mason area and have three children and seven grandchildren.

Mills replaces former long-time crier, David Palazzolo, who passed away last year.
