FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Danielle M. Brown of Troy appointed to State Bar of Michigan Board of Commissioners by Michigan Supreme Court

LANSING, MI, September 18, 2013 – Attorney Danielle M. Brown of Troy has been appointed by the Michigan Supreme Court to serve as a commissioner-at-large on the State Bar of Michigan’s Board of Commissioners. Her three-year term begins on the adjournment of the outgoing Board of Commissioners meeting this afternoon.

Brown was recently reappointed to the Michigan Compensation Appellate Commission. She has been a member of the commission since 2011. Previously, Brown was an administrative law judge in the Michigan Administrative Hearing System. She also served as assistant deputy legal counsel to Governor Jennifer Granholm.

The Board of Commissioners is one of two governing bodies of the State Bar of Michigan, the other being the Representative Assembly. The Board of Commissioners oversees the State Bar’s operations, including finance, public policy, member services, and strategic planning.
